COLLEGE YEAR IN ATHENS

Study travel is an integral part of the CYA program and combines academics, history, contemporary culture and personal exploration. You will get a chance to visit a wide range of interesting sites, some of the most impressive and beautiful in the world. Study-travel is broken up into Field trips and Optional trips. Itineraries vary between the fall and spring semesters and according to the academic focus of each group of students. Trips are led by faculty and experts who have extensive knowledge of the relevant sites and locales.

Field trips: Peloponnese, Delphi, and either Crete (fall) or Thessaloniki (spring).

Optional trips: Andros island, Crete, Meteora-Metsovo-Ioannina, Greece; Barcelona, Spain; Venice and Ravenna, Italy; Cyprus.

Workshops

Across a range of interest areas such as Marble Carving, Conservation, 3-D Modelling and Digital Archaeology.

Excavation opportunity, three weeks before the beginning of spring semester.

The site is associated with Aixonides Halai, and located in Voula, a coastal suburb of Athens.

Volunteering & Internships

There are plentiful voluntary work opportunities in Athens. We make every effort to help interested students find placements. CYA students have volunteered in law firms, marketing companies, refugee centers, kindergartens, and at various non-profit organizations.

CYA Media Lab Internship:

Each semester we offer a great in-house opportunity for students interested in building their portfolio, knowledge and skills in digital media and communications. Applications are open to all CYA students prior to the beginning of each semester.

CYA extra-curricular activities immerse you in the vibrant local scene and enhance your understanding of Greek culture. We organize various activities and trips throughout the academic year depending on opportunities and student interest.

Greek dancing and cooking lessons, debates, lectures, film presentations, hiking Mt. Olympus, day trips harvesting olives and grapes, winery visits, kayaking, weekend sailing and more.

These activities usually require an additional fee - see the full list at www.cyathens.org

Orientation & Acculturation During the first week of each semester we organize numerous activities to help you get to know your fellow students, as well as faculty and staff. You'll be introduced to our facilities, services, academic policies and safety procedures, and your new neighborhood in Athens. During this period, you will also meet individually with the Director of Student Affairs and can schedule a meeting with your Academic Advisor to discuss your program of studies.

Housing is arranged in self-contained residential apartments in the area of Pangrati, a 2 to 10 minute walk from the Academic Center. Homestays are also possible for students who express interest and wish to experience the Greek family lifestyle.

Weekday Meals are included in the program fees. Lunch is provided from Monday to Friday, (except on field trips, holidays, and during recesses). The daily menu includes vegetarian options and we also cater for those with dietary restrictions or allergies.

Apply online at www.cyathens.org.

Fees are listed in detail on cyathens.org. We also provide an estimated budget to help prospective students make a financial plan (fees are listed in US dollars). We advise you to check with your study abroad office for detailed information on study abroad costs.

Scholarships. Eligibility for our scholarships is based on financial need. Only students who have been accepted to CYA for a semester or academic year are eligible to apply.
