Summer 2021

Archaeological Excavations — Art History — Cultural Heritage
Environment — Nutrition — Travel Writing And much more!

Destinations include:
Athens — Santorini — Crete — Rhodes
Paros — Naxos — Poros — Nauplion — Lesvos

“My summer at CYA has had a huge impact in my personal development and my development as a scholar. I interacted with such diverse groups of people, who had all come together out of an interest in Greece.”

Sydnie Chavez, Summer ’19
Summer Courses 2021

teaty.edu

Session I — May 24 – June 19, 2021

Excavating in the Aegean: The Despotiko Field School (Paros, Antiparos)
Fees: $3,590

Education for Sustainable Development: Island Communities and Conservation (Lesvos)
Fees: $4,290

Becoming a Traveler: Writing in Greece (Athens, Poros, Nauplion)
Fees: $3,590

Session II — June 21 — July 17

Tasting Culture: Nordic and Mediterranean Food, Tradition, and Nutrition (Greece: Athens, island of Naxos. Denmark: Copenhagen, island of Samsø)
Fees: $6,175

When Egypt meets the Aegean: Interconnections in the Bronze Age Eastern Mediterranean (Thera [Santorini], Crete, Athens)
Fees: $4,290

The Present Past: Re-imagining Greece Through Heritage (Athens, Crete, Rhodes)
Fees: $4,290

CYA strongly encourages early application. Applications are considered only as long as space is available.