

THE URBAN REALITIES OF ATHENS

A lecture by Vassilis Sgoutas

Keynote speech at CYA's 2nd Annual Student Conference

The unique heritage with which Athens has been blessed is in stark contrast to the often chaotic daily realities. In everything we do, build or aspire to, western values are intermingled with long embedded character traits.

So which way forward for the city we love?

Vassilis Sgoutas is a practicing architect with works in Greece and abroad. Former President of the International Union of Architects (UIA). Honorary Fellow of the American Institute of Architects (AIA)

Wednesday 2 May 2018

7:30 p.m.

A reception will follow

Daphne & George Hatsopoulos Hall

CYA/DIKEMES

5 Plateia Stadiou, Kallimarmaro