SESSION I. From the Periclean Age to Sicily: Historical and Biographical Perspectives

Tasos Tanoulas (CYA): “New evidence about building on the Acropolis in the light of Thucydides’ History”

In the last few decades, the material body of the Acropolis monuments has been closely studied within the framework of restoration projects. Important new evidence has emerged, throwing new light on the building activity during the historic events narrated by Thucydides. The procedure of building the Propylaia, the Athena Nike temple and the Erechtheion seem to be closely related, reflecting parallel historic events and related concepts and ideologies.
